

>From Blue Paper Year 7 # 293

“A Pope according to our needs, believing in fallen Catholicism, but in active Syncretism!”

“From behold the sovereign, the Lord of hosts, shall take away from Jerusalem, and from Juda, the valiant and the strong, the whole strength of bread, and the whole strength of water.

“The strong man, and the man of war, the judge and the prophet, and the cunning man and the ancient.

“The captain over fifty, and the honorable in countenance, and the counsellor, and the architect, and the skillful in eloquent speech.

“And I will give children to be their princess, and the effeminate shall ruler over them.

“And the people shall rush one upon another, and every man against his neighbor: the child shall make a tumult against the ancient, and the lowest against the honorable.” (Is. 3, 1-5).

These words from Prophet Isaiah may help us to understand somehow the liberal attitude of today's Pope. Indeed, it is rather easily conceivable to say that he is an anti-pope, perhaps the Forerunner of the Antichrist. However, such a human reasoning is more difficult to uphold it than to foresee that chain of countless consequences, as “domino-effect” down fall!

In fact, it is not Pope Francis who makes the FAITH. He must serve it, keep it and transmitted as given from Our Lord Jesus Christ to Saint Peter, and from the first Pope to the last one until the end of the world [consummation of the centuries]. The fundamental reason is that the Catholic Church, the Pope [as VICAR of Christ], and the hierarchy are at the service of the Deposit of the Faith. Otherwise, he would devastate it.

It is certainly clear that a complete submission to the Pope, and therefore complete submission to the subversive teaching of Vatican II Council, accepting all the Liturgical Reform [including the New Mass, New Sacraments, New Canon Law, New Bible, New Catechism, in a word New Evangelization] is not an option. It is our duty to keep the integrity of the Deposit of the Faith, with the teachings of all the Popes, confronting the bias opinions taught by the last seven Popes in regards to their new doctrinal/moral Theology, with its consequences in Pastoral issues from the modern world.

In this perspective, the New Evangelization Program is the summary drawn from the acceptance of Vatican II Council, which goes in a direction contrary to Catholic Tradition - in such an extent than the Pope, the Vatican II Council, and the Reforms are carrying us far away from Truth.

Doubtless to say, Pope Bergolio has sent his personal message in regards to his views about Church and religion, which is not the Catholic One. His visit to Cuba and United States is one step forward to the well-known “autodemolition,” not only within the Church - as a chain explosive reaction can work collapsing a building from top to bottom [Does it sound familiar?] - but also without the Church as leading Nations and families into a system: the New World Order.

Let's read again these words quoted in 1820:

“The Pope, whoever he is, will never come to the secret societies: it is up to the secret societies to take the first step towards the Church, with the target of conquering both of them.

“The task that we are going to undertake is not the work of a day, or of a month, or of a year; it may last several years, perhaps a century, but in our ranks the soldier dies and the combat is ongoing.

*“We do not intend to win a Pope to our cause, to make of them neophytes of our principles, propagators of our ideas. That would be a ridiculous dream; and if events turn out in some way, if Cardinals or prelates, for example, of their own free will or by surprise, should enter into a part of our secrets, this is not at all an incentive for desiring their elevation to the Chair of Peter. That elevation would ruin us. Ambition alone would have led them to Apostasy, which requirements of power would force them to sacrifice us. What we must ask for, what we should look for and wait for, as the Jews wait for their Messiah, is a Pope according to our needs...

“... Now then, in order to assure ourselves a Pope of the required dimensions, it is a question first of shaping [grooming] for him, for this Pope, a generation worthy of the reign we are dreaming of. Leave old people and those of a mature age alone. Go to the youth and, if it is possible, even to the children... You will honor for yourselves, for a little cost, a reputation as good Catholics and as pure patriots.

"This reputation will put to our doctrines into the midst of the young clergy, as well as deeply into the monasteries. In a few years, by the force of things, this young clergy will have overrun all the functions: they will take over the ruling class, they will manage everything, they will be judges, they will take part on the Sovereign Council, they will be called to choose the PONTIFF who should reign. And this Pontiff, like most of his contemporaries, will be necessarily more or less imbued with the Italian and humanitarian principles that we are going to begin to put into circulation. It is a small grain of black mustard that we are entrusting to the ground, but the sunshine of justice will develop it up to the highest power, and you will see one day what a rich harvest this small seed will produce...

"... You wish to establish the reign of the chosen ones on the throne of the prostitute of Babylon, let the Clergy march under your standard, always believing that they are marching under the banner of the Apostolic Keys. You intend to make the last vestige of the tyrants and the oppressors disappear; lay your nets [snares] like Simon Bar-Jona; lay them in the sacristies, the seminaries, and the monasteries rather than at the bottom of the sea: and if you do not hurry, we promise you a catch more miraculous than his. The fisher of fish became the fisher of men; you will bring friends around the Apostolic Chair. You will have preached a Revolution in Tiara and in Cope, marching with the cross and the banner, a Revolution that will need to be only a little bit urged on to set a fire to the four corners of the world." [The Anti-Christian Conspiracy, Mgr. Delassus, "Permanent Instruction of 1820," pp. 82-90)

So, we are at a great momentum of the battle between "Truth and Error", as "Good and Evil" as well. More important than battlefield strategy, psychological tactics, and logistical preparation, is the successful grooming of the doctrine of deception, as a snare "net-work" throughout the world. It seems to be that a large concentration of Humanity is unaware of what is ongoing in the affairs of our devastating Church and of Politics hurting us in Moral/Economy of our Countries.

In consequence, looking at the crimes of our ungodly age, from Abortion and Sodomy to divorce and filthy education in mind and bodies; from deliberate impoverishment of people through finance speculation in currencies, evolving endless succession of wars of aggression and terror; from blasphemous tendencies in worship and witchcraft to homosexual consecrated people to God but lovers of devil... we can draw from these felonies that Apostasy is on its way of conquest. As Saint Pius X had said two months after his Pontifical election on his first Encyclical "the disastrous state of human society today is Apostasy from God." By Apostasy we mean a rejection of the Faith, like today's crisis of the Faith and of civilization. It is, both a spiritual and a social Apostasy, a defection from the ONE true Faith in its Theological and temporal manifestations and extensions.

The summit among all evils is the dethronement of Jesus Christ as King and Sovereign. He's been dethroned by men, as individuals and members of Nations, not only in their minds and hearts but also at homes and schools; more than ever we are witnessing that His Kingdom has been put aside by Churchmen, including by the same Pope.

As God's grace builds on nature, Satan seeks to destroy nature and the natural order for the purpose of overturning the Kingdom of Grace in our human soul, and temporal world alike. This rupture of the Christian Society, and of course an intrusive action into Our Lord's Church, is a direct attack on the human soul so that its eternal salvation would be at stake. That's why the prescriptions given by the modern Nations are not according to the integrity and fullness of Gospel of Christ, but to other gospel in which man works for man, until he becomes god.

Therefore, the New Evangelization is matching with the New World Order, using POVERTY as a driving force [like Dorothy Gray and Thomas Merton conceived], in a way that is not concern to a man of Catholic Faith: this sort of Government corrupts the human conscience and extinguish the very spirit of Christ from the Church and the world, but is likable to Childish and effeminate leaders.

Viva Cristo Rey!
